

for their sheer dedication to all things regarding live music and overall excellent contributions to Nightflying - he as a writer and she as a photographer - and professional representation of the publication nationally and internationally and all of the Altered State with great class and true personal charm...

...simply put, they make us look good...

for these things and so many more, we are most proud to sincerely thank and recognize Sherree and David as our 2011 Employees of The Year..

David & Sherree Hughes
Employees of the Year
2011